Women in Global Health’s informal engagements in relation to WHO

2015
- #WGH300 List created by Professor Ilona Kickbusch
- The Women in Global Health Movement launching at sidelines of the 68th World Health Assembly (WHA)
- Partnering with the Graduate Institute for Round tables on “Gender Reality Check in Global Health”

2016
- Calling for gender equality to be an agenda among WHO DG candidates
- Launching the call to action for gender equality in global health at the WHO EB 140 with governments
- Health Workers storytelling at the Human Resources Health Forum in Dublin

2017
- Recognizing the 1st Heroines of Health during the 70th WHA
- Calling for gender transformative leadership at WHO in meeting with the DG
- Launching the #GenderEquityHub co-chaired by WGH & WHO

2018
- Organizing WHO’s first informal consultation on gender for the GPW13
- The 40th Anniversary of Alma Alta Declaration on Primary Health Care
- Continuous storytelling at the Human Resources Health Forum in Dublin

2019
- Recognizing the 2nd Heroines of Health
- Advocating for gender equity in health at the 71st WHA
- Delivered by women, led by men report launched at the UN Commission Status of Women (CSW)
- Launching the Alliance on Gender Equality and UHC with 200 organizations

2020
- Recognizing the 3rd Heroines of Health at the 72nd WHA
- Launching the #GenderEquityHub co-chaired by WGH & WHO
- Delegates at the WHO EB 148
- Women in Global Health Security Summit during UNGA

2021
- Signing an MOU with WHO on International Women’s Day
- High-Level Commitment announcing on the #GenderEqualHCW at the Generation Equality Forum
- Closing the leadership gap paper launching

Women in Global Health is representing our informal engagements. We are not claiming representation on behalf of any other entity.